NOTHING WRONG WITH TAYLOR

The safe in Wray Taylor's office was opened yesterday in order that his books might be obtained and they are now undergoing examination at the hands of the auditor. An investigation was made also of the Chinese fund and Auditor Fisher stated yesterday from what examination had been made the accounts of Mr. Taylor, both as commissioner of agriculture and as immigration agent, are correct. The books relating to the Chinese fund are somewhat involved and it will require three or four days to make a complete examination though every indication points to absolute honesty in Mr. Taylor's relations with the government.

There was deposited in the First National Bank the sum of $11,000 as an immigration fund, which had not been largely drawn upon recently. The most of the Chinese fund had been in the Territorial treasury for over a year and as far as could be ascertained yesterday there is nothing wrong with the fund deposited to Mr. Taylor's account.

There will be one good result of the strange action of Taylor, and that is that a thorough investigation of the Chinese fund will now be made. There has been considerable talk since the absconding of Wright as to this Chinese fund, and now it has been determined to make up an account of the money since it was turned over by the Postal Savings Bank. The fund now amounts to over $150,000 and there seems to have been no government official directly responsible for its safekeeping, so that there is no record of all the transactions.

proper procedure would be to refer the matter to the Attorney General and he could investigate and present the charges to the Supreme Court. The court itself was not willing to proceed to an investigation but would refer it to the Attorney General. Humphreys stated that he had not called up the personal property, which renders a person guilty of the crime of embezzlement is a felonious conversion and before you can convict the defendant in this case you must be satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt that the money mentioned in the indictment, or some part of it, was feloniously converted to his own use by the defendant, with the intention at the time to keep the same.

"I further charge and instruct you that the burden of proof is on the Territory, and it must establish by evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant B. H. Wright received the money as charged in the indictment by virtue of his office as chief clerk of the Department of Public Works and clerk of market, and as such chief clerk and clerk of market was duly authorized to receive it by law. And, even though the party or parties paying the money supposed that he was authorized, if he was not so authorized you must acquit him."

The jury retired promptly at four o'clock and half an hour later requested that the indictment be given to them, which was done.

Just before six o'clock the bailiff announced that the jury had agreed upon a verdict. Wright with his counsel came into court and the following verdict was handed to the court by the foreman and read:

"We, the jury in the above entitled cause, find the defendant guilty on the first charge and not guilty on the second charge."

"J. H. BLACK, Foreman."

The first count in the indictment is the embezzlement of the Hawaiian Electric Co. check and the second relates to the shortage found in the Public Works Office by Deputy Auditor Meyers. This amounted to $1,982, and was alleged to be money taken as clerk of the market and as chief clerk.

Defendant's counsel immediately gave notice of motion for a new trial and of exceptions to the verdict. If a new trial is refused an appeal will be taken to the Supreme Court.

Wright received the verdict without emotion. The court fixed Tuesday morning at nine o'clock as the hour for passing sentence.

The Boyd case will be heard on next Tuesday and other criminal cases will be taken up Monday. Judge De Bolt made an order last evening instructing the jurors on the regular panel who were excused pending the conclusion of the Wright trial, to return Monday morning.

matter since Andrews went into office because his assistant, E. C. Peters, was one of the counsel against whom charges had been made.

Argument was then had on the motion to advance the cause on the calendar; and the motion was granted. Chief Justice Frear said:

"The court has some hesitation in the matter especially in view of the fact that the motion was not presented at the opening of the session. On the whole though the court is willing to grant the motion, taking into consideration the age of the defendant, the fact that his residence and interests are elsewhere and more particularly because of the large amount of money involved which is now lying idle. I will add further that though this is a motion to advance, yet it is practically no advancement, as the case is next on the calendar the intervening cases not being ready. It is largely a question as to whether it shall be heard at this session or the next session, and the court will grant counsel's motion."

The attorneys are limited to three hours' argument for each side and the Ellises are given the opening and closing. The hearing is set for Monday.

WORTHINGTON FORD AND ARCHIVES

Worthington Chauncey Ford, who was here the other day to see Prof. Alexander about removing Hawaiian archives to Washington, was chief of the Bureau of Statistics under Cleveland and has lately been with the Boston public library. He is a brother of the late Paul Leicester Ford, the author of Janice Meredith and The Honorable Peter Sterling. The murder of the novelist by Malcolm Ford, the third brother, is fresh in the public mind.

Regarding the archives, Prof. Alexander will make a vigorous effort to keep them here and suggests action by the Legislature to provide fireproof vaults for them.

A VILLAGE WONDER

THE HAMLET OF BIG SPRING, WIS.
HAS A SENSATION.

Agitation Over the Story of a Woman Who Wanted to Die.

Her Condition Due to Serious Ill Health.

Big Spring, Adams county, Wisconsin, is much the same as other country villages where every resident's affairs are pretty well known to everybody else. It was no secret, therefore, that Mrs. Jennette Wilber led an unhappy life and had wished for death as a relief from her suffering. "For twenty-five years I was tortured with indigestion," she says, "but now I am well, thanks to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I have told all my friends of the almost miraculous way in which I was cured."

"Everyone in the village knows of my long sickness. After each meal, gas would form in my stomach and cause me great distress. So great was my suffering that I thought many times it would be a relief to die. Of course I was treated by the best doctors in our section, but the help they gave me was only temporary. I was very careful of my diet but as I became worse I had difficulty in retaining the simplest food. In fact, the smell of food nauseated me. One day I saw Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People mentioned in a newspaper and, although I had tried many medicines without being benefited, I decided to try them. I knew that my case, being of long standing, could not be cured in a day and I gave the pills a thorough trial. I began to improve slowly after taking the first box and in a few months I was entirely free from indigestion and could eat anything I wanted. Since that time I have been troubled but once when I became run down from overwork. I resorted to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills again and was soon entirely well."

Anyone having indigestion or dyspepsia can be cured if Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are given a sufficient trial. These pills act, not on the symptoms, but on the cause of diseases arising from impoverished blood or shattered nerves. They cure partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, nervous headache, after-effects of the grip, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexion and all forms of weakness. At all druggists, or direct from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., fifty cents per box; six boxes for two dollars and a half.

Castano Brothers to Talk.

The Castano brothers will address the 4 o'clock meeting at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow afternoon, telling of their experiences and labors in Guam. The bible class will be taught by C. J. Day at the close of the meeting and lunch will be served at 6 p. m. All men are welcome.

HARMLESS AS MILK

Look out what you put into the child's stomach! Children are especially sensitive to the action of medicine. But you need never fear Scott's Emulsion. That is one reason why it is so popular as a children's medicine.

"As harmless as milk"—that is saying a good deal. But we may go even further and say that Scott's Emulsion will stay on the child's stomach when milk will not.

A little added to the milk in baby's bottle and a little after meals for older children is just the right thing for the weak and sickly ones.

We'll send you a little to try if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl street, New York.

It is an old saying that "figures never lie," yet by adopting algebraic formulae figures perform queer antics sometimes. For instance, given; to prove that 3=2. To demonstrate this let 4=4. This is conceded. Now divide into factors, thus:

24=16=24+16

again by transferring and by rule, changing signs,

24-24=16-16

Take out the common factors,

3(8-8)=2(8-8)

And cancelling the two common factors in brackets we have left

3=2

Since we can now put Q. E. D. at the foot and have been able to prove that 3=2, are we not entitled to prove that the DOUGLAS PATENT CLOSET is guaranteed against leakage and the annoyance of running water? Bath, the plumber, installs the DOUGLAS.
